A thank you to all!
Named and unnamed--we appreciate all who help throughout the year to make the German Cultural Society the success that it is today.
Liebe Landsleut,

As another year comes to a close, it is once again time to ask you to support our foundation financially. Our expenditures for youth programs have never been stronger. The fourth “Weltdreffen der Donauschwaben Jugend”, the crown jewel in this year’s budget, was a smashing success. Stipends for youth groups, brass bands, German schools, and the annual soccer tournament have never been higher. Thanks to volunteers at the club level, youth participation in club activities remains strong. To maintain the momentum in our youth programs let’s reach into our” giving pockets” and make some sizeable donations to our foundation for the holidays!

The Weltreffen trip to Hungary and Romania gave our youth the opportunity to connect with their families’ Heimat. Organized by Weltdachverband president Stefan Ihhas, this bus tour visited Baja, Nadwar, Hajos, Seetsch, Mohacs, Boly, Temeswar, Hatzfeld, Warjasch, Maria Radna, Nitzkydorff, Budapest, and Taksony. Among the highlights, we participated in the dedication of the Ulmer Schachtel at the Internat, visited with the mayors of several cities, participated in two Kerweih celebrations, heard first-hand reports of Russia-deportations, made Strudel and Bratwurst, visited Weinkellers, danced at the Annaball and other fests, learned new dances and songs, and learned hat-making in Hatzfeld. We visited the pilgrim church at Maria Radna and the graves of Stefan Jaeger, Peter Jung, and others. From Seetsch we boarded a Donau ferry and placed a ceremonial wreath in the Donau! Almost ninety Schwowe from the USA, Canada, Germany, Austria and Brazil attended this Treffen. The average cost to attend, a major commitment for all participants, exceeded $3000. Our foundation’s support enabled many of the youth attending this event to make the trip. Results are already evident as the dances and songs learned in Europe are being introduced to our youth groups. The excitement generated among participants is flaming interest in our culture.

In closing, I once again ask every Schwob who reads this letter to reach into their pocket and make an annual donation of fifty dollars or more.

Frohe Weihnachten!

I have been asked many times what is the Stiftung /what is its meaning and purpose???

The German dictionary defines Stiftung as: “Eine Stiftung ist eine Einrichtung, die mit Hilfe eines Vermögens einen vom Stifter festgelegten Zweck verfolgt.”

Translated: A foundation, institution that uses an asset to pursue a purpose established by the founder.

Many years ago the Foundation founders established the purpose which states:

” To foster, support and encourage the preservation of the customs, traditions, literature, culture and history of the Danube-Swabian people (Germanic people of Southeastern Europe). To encourage the pursuit of studies in the German language, in the history, culture, literature, music and folklore of the Danube-Swabian people. To provide food, shelter, clothing and other assistance to the Danube-Swabian people in dire need of help caused by war, acts of God, or other disaster. To foster and encourage the participation of the Danube-Swabian youth in amateur athletic competition at the national and international level.”

The Danube-Swabian Foundation was founded in 1982 to provide financial support for the educational activities of all associated organizations and other educational institutions.

The Danube-Swabian Foundation is incorporated in the State of Wisconsin and organized exclusively for charitable purposes under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code. The Foundation is governed by a Board of Directors which includes two volunteers from each associated organization.

Thanks to generous donations, the Danube-Swabian Foundation has had an outstanding record of financial support and assistance of German language schools, dance groups, sports tournaments, travel groups and culture prizes. The Foundation has assisted in recording the oral history, in the translation of historical books and has published books of our Danube-Swabian people.

In continuing to define our goals /pursue our purpose and continue with our outstanding record of financial support of our Danube-Swabian activities, the Stiftung needs your support.

Please give generously. The past 37 years assisting the preservation our culture has been an honor.

Frohe Weihnachten und ein Glückliches Neues Jahr von uns allen in der Donauschwäbische Stiftung der U.S.A.

To start off, the German Mass was wonderful as I read along in the booklet. Seeing my grandma singing in German and my mom reading a passage too, really helped me realize how great of a connection I have with the language and with the unique culture as well. After that, the auction went off smoothly as other people and myself bid on the Strauss. Receiving the Strauss was one of the most gratifying and connecting experiences I have ever been a part of, as it really felt satisfying to have put in all of the time and effort to be awarded with the position of the group. The Strauss also reminded me of my German heritage as rosemary is a common herb to see in the household. The significance of the Strauss to me is that it connects others, just as these events connect us to the culture we grew up in or appreciate together. To me, the Rosemary bush symbolizes a warm and welcoming family as my mom often gardens and has tried to grow her own rosemary, but unfortunately that didn't last very long. Being given the Kirchweih sash not only strengthened my role in the dancing group, but also reminded me of the strong bond that holds each and every one of us in celebrating this amazing culture.

We are excited to announce that our Kinder group is now practicing at: DONAU PARK
5020 W. FOUR RIDGE RD.
HOUSE SPRINGS, MO 63051

Kinder ages 3-12 years will practice as a combined group to learn German dancing.

On Thursday, August 8th (which also was last Kindertanz practice before school started back), all of our kids received a Schultüte from mom and dad. During dance they were filled with back to school stuff that our Kindertanz parents brought to dance class. This is a really neat tradition that is done at the beginning of school each year in Germany.

Landestreffen Milwaukee, Wisconsin

The Landestreffen this year was held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin on August 30th-September 2nd.

Our club was well represented by our dance groups. We all participated in the march onto the field. There were performances by the Kindergruppe, Jugendgruppe, Die Heimatgruppe, and the Volkstanzgruppe.

Labor Day is always a nice time to get together with the other clubs from around the United States. This year, the dance groups from our club came together to dance a combined performance. There were members from Die Heimatgruppe, Wir Tanzen, and Volkstanz. Performances like that help to carry on traditions and our culture.

We also were able to see the performance by all who went on the Welttreffen. We had five people from St. Louis go on that trip. We have since been able to learn some of those dances for other performances.

There was also a group from Szar, Hungary that performed twice over the weekend. Their performances included traditional Donauschwaben dances and a few gypsy dances.

We are looking forward to next year’s Landestreffen in Cleveland, Ohio!

Becky Warren
Die Heimatgruppe

Die Heimatgruppe has been extremely busy practicing, performing, and planning for Winzerfest this year. Check out our article about Winzerfest later in the newsletter on pages 24-25! This year, we had a couple of first time performances. We performed at the Landestreffen in Milwaukee and at Saint Charles’ Oktoberfest. We have also continued dancing combination performances with the Volkstanzgruppe. Recently, we also performed at the DKV’s Oktoberfest and at a local assisted living home.

It is crazy to think that we are wrapping up our second year as a dance group! Over the past two years, we have grown so much as a group. We have choreographed several dances together, as well as learned a number of dances performed by various groups across the United States, Canada, and Europe. We are proud of our dedication and passion for the DKV and our culture. It will be exciting to see how we will keep growing as a group!

Garden Club

On behalf of the Executive Committee and the membership of the German Cultural Society, we extend heartfelt thanks to Becky Haas for the many years she coordinated the German Cultural Society Garden Club. Becky is retiring as the Garden Club Coordinator. Under Becky’s direction, many hours were spent planting, weeding, trimming, deadheading, transplanting, and cleaning out the garden areas at the Hall on Jefferson and at the Donau Park. For many years, the Garden Club has done a wonderful job of keeping our properties looking beautiful. We are grateful to Becky Haas and all the members of Garden Club for their service and dedication to the Verein.

Over the weekends of September 7-8 & 14-15, our club hosted another fun festival: Oktoberfest! Both weekends, Die Spitzkuam and The Deutschmeister Brass Band entertained us with their music and our dance groups entertained us with their dances. There were performances by the Kindertanzgruppe, Jugendgruppe, Die Heimatgruppe, Wir Tanzen, Volkstanzgruppe, and D’Fröhliche Schuhplattler. All of the performances were great! Our members helped to serve cold beer and delicious food. Bratwurst, weisswurst, Hungarian wurst, potato salad, coleslaw, and strudel were served. As always, Oktoberfest was a lot of fun and we are looking forward to it again next year!

Trip to Bethel, Missouri

Two of our Jugendgruppe members had a great weekend spending time with the folks of Historic Bethel German Colony. On October 5th 2019, the German Cultural Society Of St. Louis - 2019 Rosenball König Josiah Webb and Königin Olivia Heidbrink performed in the Bethel Heritage Day & 175th Anniversary - 2019 pageant on Saturday night. It was an interesting history lesson on the life and hardships endured by a group of Germans that made a go at communal living in the 1800s in Northern Missouri. They felt honored to be invited to dance at this very special event in Bethel Missouri.

Important Upcoming Events

The German Cultural Society will be hosting the Landesverband Annual Meeting on April 24th-26th, 2019. Please note that this event is not open to the public, but we will be needing volunteers to work in the kitchen and bar.

The German Cultural Society will be turning 75 years old on December 31, 2020. To commemorate this milestone, we will be holding a year long 75th anniversary celebration. This will be celebrated from 12/31/2020 to 12/31/2021.

For our 75th anniversary, the history of our organization will be rewritten/updated. We are collecting any DKV related pictures, flyers, historical information, etc. from 1945 to present day. Please send all information to Joey Wendl by emailing germanstl.fb@gmail.com or by giving it to him in person. He can scan any pictures or documents and then return them to you.

Although the Chor ceased to exist after the National Sängerfest in Peoria in May, it was felt that our German culture of song should be featured again at an event. Since we do not have enough singers to put on a concert, we collaborated with the Kindertanzgruppe and the Deutschmeister Brass Band to create a “Musikalischer Nachmittag.” Judged by the attendance, it was a success. Since this was a new idea, there is a lot of room for improvement, however.

As usual, the kids stole the show with their rendition of the “Vogelhochzeit”. Our thanks to Stephanie and the teachers, Olivia and Josiah. Thank you, Rosemarie, for your group’s participation. Helmuth and Pete, it’s always great working with you. Sometimes the “ad lib” parts are the best. Michael Wendl, we needed you, and you helped us greatly with your accompaniment. Moni manned the kitchen very capably, (Moni, they loved the onions on the Leberkäse), and Helga and Sig hustled back there. Our ladies supplied the potato salad and the Torten and desserts, and I am told they were delicious. To all who helped put this event together and make it a success, I thank you.

But above all I thank our audience. The turnout was above expectation. Hopefully, this event can be continued in the future.

Winzerfest was a huge success! All of our hard work paid off! Die Heimatgruppe has been planning for this event for about a year. Winzerfest has not been held in almost two decades, so it was a lot to work to start from scratch. We had to make decorations and remake all of the jail and trellis. It was truly an honor to host this event and bring back wonderful memories.

At Winzerfest, we served homemade, traditional goulash, spätzle, bratwursts, vegetables, and cake. We had a lot of different activities. We had various German and Donauschwaben wines for a wine tasting. People were able to try the wines and then buy a glass or a bottle of whatever they liked! There was also a wine pull, where people paid $20 to pull a wrapped bottle of wine, valued between $20-$60. After our first performance, we also had a straw raffle.

For most of the night, we had grape bags hanging from the trellis that people were trying to steal. Our "police officers" were busy that night, trying to catch all of the thieves! On the bags of grapes that we hung from the trellis, there were raffle tickets. At the end of the night, three lucky people won a grand prize (a bottle of wine and a $100 gift card)! Even though people were sent to jail for stealing, we still wanted them to have fun so we turned the jail into a photo booth and had a special surprise for those eligible when they got out (a shot of alcohol).

Throughout the night, we performed twice. There was a mixture of traditional and modern dances. Many of our dances we created, while others are traditional dances that many groups perform. It was humbling to perform the dance, Kathi Laendler, which used to be performed by the Trachtengruppe (who also used to host this event and helped guide us this year for our event). It is special to carry on these traditions, dances, and customs.

Die Heimatgruppe is very thankful for all of our amazing family, friends, sponsors, and donors who helped make this Winzerfest a success. We could not have done this without their generous help!

We look forward to hosting this event again and we have already started planning for Winzerfest 2020. Join us again on November 14th, 2020!

Die Heimatgruppe
Rosemarie & Terry Ficken, and Monika, Herbert & Christoph Lorenz all had the opportunity to participate in the 4th Welttreffen Donauschwäbischer Kulturgruppen in Baja, Hungary and Hatzfeld, Romania this year. We are sharing a summary and personal highlight of this amazing cultural experience. A special thank you to Moni who served as one of our translators throughout the trip!

The program began on Wednesday, July 24, 2019 in Baja, Hungary, where 80+ people, all from different Donauschwaben groups from USA, Canada, Brazil, Austria, and Germany were housed in the Ungarndeutsches Bildungs-zentrum (UBZ) dormitories. This school is a Deutsche Auslandsshule (German school for Hungarians) and is from Kindergarten through Hochschule (high school). During our time in Hungary, the UBZ was our home base, where breakfasts and sometimes lunches & dinners were served from the school's cafeteria.

Thursday, July 25 - This was our first full day in Hungary and the organizers made this a transitional day - surely to combat the jetlag for us travelers. We had a group dance practice (learning new folk dances). We also all attended lectures about Trachten and had an actual demonstration on how to starch underskirts. Did you know that the more underskirts a girl wore under her Tracht – the richer her family was and sometimes there were 5-6 underskirts under a Tracht making for a very, very full skirt and dowry!

Friday, July 26 - On this morning, we attended a lecture on the Donauschwaben settlement in Entre Rios, Brazil, given by a Brazilian attendee of the 4th Welttreffen. Our afternoon and evening took us to the town of Nadwar with a very intense cultural program. We were led to their culture house and were greeted with Palinka (fruit brandy) and Pogache (a bread pastry). Their group's program included performances by a group of young accordionists (12 and younger), a young girl telling a story in Schvowisch (Swabian) dialect, and a choreographed play and dance of a typical Kerweih (Kirchweih). The play also included the engagement of a young couple and the Vertreibung (expulsion). It was a wonderful performance and left many of us in tears. Since Nadwar is the city with the most Wein Keller (wine cellars), we went on a walking tour up the hill passing many rows of the wine cellars and vineyards, through the cemetery and back down to more rows of wine cellars. The evening was spent eating a delicious dinner and wine tasting inside two private wine cellars and we ended up actually “dancing in the streets” serenaded by an accordionist! ...ja, ja der Wein is guat (gut)!!!
Saturday, July 27 - The UBZ was also the venue for the christening of the full-scale Ulmer Schachtel, the boats which the Donauschwaben people used to travel down the Donau to land in Hungary and Romania in the late 1700s. Many of the Donauschwaben clubs around the world sponsored the construction and the Schachtel is to be used as a classroom and part museum. The Ulmer Schachtel was named “Hoffnung” translated to hope. Christoph had the honor of burying a time-capsule which contained items such as the Welttreffen program which included participant names, a coin from each participating country, a Donauschwaben song book and music CD, and other items. The time-capsule is to be opened again in 50 years. All participants received a piece of wood made from the scraps of the UBZ Schachtel. Each piece was stamped with the Ulmer Schachtel symbol. In the evening the UBZ hosted a traditional (Tracht & dirndl attire) ‘Annaball’ with dinner and dancing by the music from the Heimattöne Kapelle (the band that performed in St. Louis when Taks came to visit.)

Sunday, July 28 – Today, we spent the day in the town of Seetsch. This was a very active day full of cultural experiences; a welcome reception with music, Schnapps, and bread; sausage and strudel making; a remembrance ceremony with wreath laying in the Donau (Danube River); a visit to two very old churches; a visit to a Schnapps distillery; and a visit to a flour mill run by manpower. The welcome reception was heart-warming as their brass band started playing the moment we entered the courtyard and we were greeted by the Seetsch group (dressed in Tracht) with Schnapps and Hochzeitsbrot. The remembrance ceremony on the Donau began with their brass band escorting us through the streets of Seetsch, down to the Donau and onto a small ferry. The ferry traveled a short distance up the Donau where two of our participants laid a wreath in the water. We all prayed together in German honoring our forefathers and heritage, it was a solemn and tearful experience for all. The evening dinner and dance program was another part of our wonderful experience in Seetsch, as we ate the Wurst and Strudel which we made with our own hands earlier that day. Terry helped make sausage and Christoph, Rosemarie and Monika all had their hands in the dough for making the Ziehstrudel: cherry, poppyseed and cheese with raisins. We danced the rest of the evening away with the accompaniment of their band who ended up marching us to our busses when we had to leave.
Monday, July 29 - Our morning & afternoon consisted of learning group dances and singing German folksongs. Our singing was led by Jozsef Emmert and the Wemender Duo. This was followed by a late afternoon/evening cultural program in the town of Hajosch. After arriving in Hajosch, we had a walking tour through their town (by the accompaniment of an accordionist) that led us to a park with a stage where the Hajoscher Tanzgruppe (dance group) performed for us. The Hajoscher Schwaben pulled many of us up for a group dance that had us all laughing. Dinner was at the Gösser–Schlosser Beer Garden where we sang (our morning rehearsed songs) along with our hosts. At the end of the evening we all walked to our bus singing in the streets of Hajosch!

Tuesday, July 30 - This morning we had fun learning some Kindertänze (children's dances) - Ringel, Ringel Reihe, Zipfel-Mitzel, among others. After lunch at the UBZ, we left for the town of Boly for another cultural program and dinner. The cultural program was of a wedding between a Donauschwaben girl and a Croatian boy, highlighting the customs and dances of two different groups. The two different groups, the Mohatscher Nationalities Folk Dance Group and the Naarader Dance Group from Großnaarad put on a wonderful performance. Dinner was at the Pincet/Weinkeller Roth. The Roth family hosted our entire group with delicious food, wine, and of course Schnapps. We headed back to the UBZ after 10:00pm.
Wednesday, July 31 - This was the day that the Welttreffen transitioned from Hungary to Romania, traveling in our buses. Our first stop was in Temeschburg for a walking city tour. We drove through Sackalas and thought of everyone back at home! Accomodations in Romania were at the Hostel Ilina Classic in Hatzfeld, aka FC Bayern München Fan Central. During our time in Romania, this Hostel was our home base, where breakfasts and sometimes lunches & dinners were eaten.

Thursday, August 1 - The entire day was full of learning dances, cultural traditions, and lectures. Our dance courses were directed by Hansi Mueller “Tanzi-Hansi” and his Hatzfeld dance group. We also learned the art of Kirchweih Hutschmuck (hat decoration making). You would not believe that the hat ‘jewelry’ is completely handmade with starting materials of only bare wire, crepe paper, fabric and thread. Each city has its own design. These decorated hats are only worn at Kirchweih and traditionally were made by the girls and presented to the boys Kirchweih morning. That evening two speakers talked about their personal deportation into Russia. This was another very tearful and impactful experience for all participants.

Friday, August 2 - Most of this day was dedicated to the Deutsche Wallfahrt nach Maria Radna (the pilgrimage to the Basilica of Maria Radna). Historically, August 2nd has been declared as the pilgrimage day of the German faithful. This place of pilgrimage is a sanctuary of awakening, reflection, guidance, strength, and comfort for the Catholic German-speaking settlers on the Danube. Donauschwaben from many different countries continue this pilgrimage every year. The Bishop of Temeswar, his excellency Josef Csaba Pál, officiated the mass in the Basilica. Afterwards, we were invited for lunch inside the monastery, where we had delicious white bean and sausage soup, bread, and beer. Our return trip to Hatzfeld took us to the town's cemetery to honor the grave site of Stefan Jäger, (a famous Donauschwaben folk artist whose paintings captured the life in our former homeland). We also went to the Catholic Church in Hatzfeld and listened to a beautiful concert given by the organist, a violinist, and soloist. As a side note, in the morning we were detained by one of our buses having mechanical problems, which held up the entire church service at the Basilica, but we were all doubly blessed as we attended mass twice that day – once at the Basilica and then again in Hatzfeld's Catholic Church!

It was also on this day that the Lorenz family were fortunate enough to be able to visit Herbert's hometown of Schöndorf. Since Schöndorf was only about 30 kilometers from Maria Radna, a couple of hometown friends drove them to the house where Herbert was born. They walked through the remainder of the town to where his Oma's house was and to the Korbfechterei (basket weaving business), where Herbert's parents worked weaving baskets, suitcases, trunks, chairs, and many other items. We talked with the people that now lived there and had Birnen (pear) Schnapps and Pfirsiche from the trees in their yard. It was so awesome for Herbert to be in his hometown again and also for Moni and Christoph to be able to see this part of Herbert's history.
Saturday, August 3 - Kirchweih in Warjasch, Romania was like no other Kirchweih we've ever been to. Upon our arrival in Warjasch, we witnessed the setting up the Kirchweih-baum (tree), the young boys carrying the Stamm (pole), and the girls carrying the crown down the street into the Platz (courtyard) of Warjasch's Culture House. After raising the Kirchweihbaum, we joined other dance groups in a 3-hour long Kirchweih procession walking practically through the entire town to get to the church. Just imagine - 102 couples in Tracht with a marching brass band parading down the streets of Warjasch! This old custom was meant to invite the townspeople to the consecration of the church - the Kirchweih. Many people came out from their houses, waved, and watched us walk by. During the parade, we actually stopped at three different houses to invite the families to the Kirchweih. In turn, we were invited into their courtyards and each family offered the entire group Wein, Wurst, Brot, und Kuchen. The Welttreffen participants were made to feel truly special and honored as the other groups in the procession parted and stood on each side of the driveway of the courtyard to allow us to enter each place first. After mass, we returned to the Platz where we joined in on the Versteigerung (auction) of the Strauss and we all danced in the courtyard around the Kirchweihbaum. Dinner music and dancing were held in the culture house until it was time to go.

Sunday, August 4 - Romania surely knows how to celebrate their Kirchweih! The town of Nitzkydorf celebrated their Kirchweih very similar to the one we attended the day before. Upon our arrival, we first toured a little bit of the town, were shown the home of Herta Müller who won the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2009, and visited the cemetery and placed a wreath upon a Donauschwaben memorial. We were greeted with a cake and coffee reception at a school. Then, we lined up in the school yard with the other groups and brass band and the Kirchweih procession began! We paraded down the streets of Nitzkydorf. Our first stop was the Greek Orthodox Church, where we invited them to participate. Then, it was off to the Catholic Church for the Kirchweih mass. After mass, we danced through the streets to the Cultural Center, where we watched several cultural performances. The Welttreffen participants were invited into the Cultural Center for a formal seven-course dinner with music and dancing. This was one of the few places that actually had air conditioning, which was very welcoming in the sweltering heat. By 10:00, the buses were loaded, and we headed for Hatzfeld singing songs all the way back. The entire program and the people of Nitzkydorf made this Kirchweih outstanding!
Monday, August 5 - This day was a travel day as we left Romania and headed back to Hungary. This time, we stayed at a hotel in Törökbalint, Hungary very close to Budapest. Late afternoon, we attended a lecture by Jürgen Harich on the topic: “Journey to the Danube Swabians Worldwide”. At 6:30 pm, the buses left for Budapest and we all went on a dinner cruise on the Donau (Danube River).

Tuesday, August 6 - The morning was spent on a walking tour of Budapest with a little sightseeing and shopping. By 3:00 pm, we were on the bus again for an Abschiedsabend (farewell evening) with our friends in Taks. We were welcomed with smiles and familiar faces at the Sziget Etterem (beer garden). After a welcome toast, we all got to participate in a fun tour of the town – by riding in a Trabi (a small sporty car). There were 10 Trabi cars of all different colors, each only holding a maximum of 4 people, so we had to go in several different shifts. All of the cars followed one another racing through the streets of Taks. We made one stop at a new church and another stop at a Heimatsmuseum with both places welcoming us with drinks & Schnapps and Pogache. Back at the beer garden, we had dinner, drinks, music, dancing, and a cultural performance by the Taks group. This was a perfect ending to an amazing Welttreffen.

There are really no words to express our gratitude and appreciation of all of the hundreds of people who planned, hosted, taught, and guided us through these 2 weeks. It was well worth all the hard work and commitment of these people. Thank you to the Weltdachverband and especially Stefan and Anna for making this another memorable event.

We were all very honored to represent the German Cultural Society of St. Louis and will always remember and continue to share the learnings and experiences with as many people as possible.

Mein Reise Bericht

My name is Christoph Lorenz and I am of Donauschwaben heritage. I live in the United States of America and am the son of Monika and Herbert Lorenz. My father, Herbert, was born in Romania and moved back to Germany with his family after the second world war. His parents, my grandparents, are Elizabeth and Peter Lorenz who were also born in Romania, but before the first world war. Ever since I was a child, I have been a part of our German Cultural Society (DKV-Deutscher Kulturverein) which has a strong presence of Donauschwaben and is a not-for-profit organization that resides in our city. I started dancing in the Kindertanzgruppe when I was 4 years old and haven't stopped dancing with the various dance groups since. I have also been playing music with the Blaskapelle for about 5 years now.

Since 2007, the Weltdachverband has hosted 4 Welttreffens, which are events in which Donauschwaben, old and young, from all over the world come together for a week or two. The Weltdachverband is a Donauschwaben organization that helps maintain and grow the various Landesverbands as well as coordinate and organize events. My father and I have attended two of the four Welttreffens, my brother has attended 1, and my mother has attended all 4. Both my parents and I attended this year’s (2019) Welttreffen and we all had a great time.

During every Welttreffen, our time is focused on learning about the Donauschwaben culture and history. This Welttreffen was two weeks long and took place first in Hungary and then in Romania. In Hungary, we spent a lot of time learning traditional Donauschwaben dances and songs so that we could bring them to our Donauschwaben communities back home. We were part of two ceremonies that helped us remember our Donauschwaben heritage. The first ceremony we attended was the burying of a time capsule at the boarding school where we were staying. They had built a replica of the boats that were used to sail down the Donau River (Ulmer Schachtel) and this ceremony was like an opening ceremony for the mini-museum they had created inside the boat. I actually got to be a part of the ceremony and helped place the time capsule in the ground to bury it, which was really cool.

In Romania, we visited lots of places and listened to many speakers. It was very interesting learning about the different towns’ and churches’ histories and how they were linked to the Donauschwaben. One of the churches we visited was the Maria-Radna which was my favorite out of them all. It was my favorite because I was told a story about how my Oma would walk to the church once a year to celebrate the Wallfahrt and participate in the pilgrimage. It would take her almost all day to walk there so she would stay the night and walk back in the morning. It was really awesome to go to that same church and attend a mass.

We also listened to several speakers while in Romania. Some of the topics that were covered included how to starch a traditional Tracht, a report on the differences in Donauschwaben communities across the world, and a first hand experience from two Donauschwaben men who were deported to Russia during the war.

It was interesting to hear about the different Donauschwaben communities around the world outside of Germany. I knew of the communities in the U.S. and Canada but I learned that there were also Donauschwaben in Brazil, Argentina, and in Australia. After the second world war, there were many waves of Donauschwaben who were wanting to move back to Germany, but were forced to move to other countries. The story of the Donauschwaben in Brazil was the most interesting to me. At the time, the Brazilians needed farmers and the Donauschwaben that moved there were mostly farmers. The Brazilians gave them a huge plot of land and the Donauschwaben started growing crops for the nearby towns. Over time, their farms grew and they started an agricultural business that is still flourishing to this day.
There were other speakers that I thought were interesting but did not have as happy of a story as the first people. We had two Donauschwaben men tell us about their experiences of being deported to Russia. My Oma has told me stories of how her mother was sent to Russia for 5 years, but she never told me any details of her mother’s experience. The two men told us all the sad things that happened to them and their families, which made everyone cry, but it was important for everyone to hear and to remember our history.

Another thing we did in Romania was attend two traditional Kirchweih Fests. During these Kirchweih Fests, we had mass and then marched around the town going to different people’s houses. At the different houses, the hosts had prepared food and drinks for us and the band played music for everyone to dance to. It was so incredible with all the local dance groups and their colorful Kirchweih hats and Trachts. Our DKV has hosted a Kirchweih every year so I was familiar with the Fest, but we don’t do it like this. I didn’t know how much I was missing out on until this summer (2019) when I attended Kirchweih in Romania.

The best thing I got to do during the Welttreffen was go to Schöndorf which is the town where my father and grandparents were born. It was the first time I have seen my father’s hometown and the first time he has been back since he and his family left after the war. It was such a special and memorable experience. We walked around the town and visited the church that my father used to attend and pump air into the organ while the organist played the music. I also got to see the factory where my Opa was a manager. While we were walking around town, we were seen and invited into a local’s home. It turns out that the people who invited us into their house used to work for my Opa at the factory and knew my father’s family. After talking for a while, they gave us wurst and marmalade to take home with us. It was so crazy how we ran into them and I will never forget that experience.

During the trip, I got to see old friends and make so many new friends. We had a lot of fun most days, and enjoyed the sad moments together as we were honoring our relatives and remembering what they had gone through. This trip was one of the most important trips of my life and I will always remember everyone I met, all the great experiences I had, and all the memories that were made.

The German Cultural Society has its origin in the St. Louis Chapter of the American Aid Society, which was founded in 1945 to help the German refugees of Eastern Europe who fled to Germany and Austria. When immigration to the United States became a possibility, many of these refugees who came to St. Louis joined the Society, as did many other immigrants from Germany & Austria.

When the need for help abated in post-war Germany, the members of the Society set the preservation of their cultural heritage as the primary goal. To more accurately reflect this purpose, the organization changed its name in 1969 to the “German Cultural Society”.
